LHS raises money for heroes

Kelli Murray/Triblocal.com staff reporter 03/05/09 11:46 AM 139 hits

Lemont High School's boys' and girls' basketball programs recently combined to raise $2,782.85 for the "Free Throws for Heroes" campaign. Members of the school's freshman, sophomore and varsity teams shot 50 free throws each, and collected pledges for the fundraiser based on their number of made free throws. Free Throws for Heroes benefits families of active and veteran Illinois military families in need.
